

A thuismitheoir, a chara,

Seachtain Fhrith-thromaíochta / Anti-Bullying Week – 15/11/21 – 19/11/21

Mar is eol duit, tá sé tábhachtach dúinn ag Gaelscoil an Chaistil go mothaironn gach duine sona agus sásta. Is scoil muid a theagascann an tábhacht le meas agus le cineáltais a léiriú le gach duine agus is minic a molann muid cineáltais i bpáistí. Tá Lá Domhanda an Chineáltais ar siúl an Satharn seo – 13 Samhain. Mar sin de pléifidh muid é sin ar scoil Dé Luain. Le linn Seachtain Fhrith-thromaíochta bíonn muid ag plé cineáltais agus éagsúlacht leis na páistí agus déanann gach rang ceacht nó dhó atá fóirsteanach dá n-aoisghrúpa. Is daoine éagsúla muid uilig agus tá sé go breá a bheith éagsúil. Chun é sin a léiriú a thuilleadh ba mhaith linn Lá na Stocaí Corra a reachtáil don Mháirt seo chugainn. Mar sin de, caith do stocaí corra ar scoil mar ba mhaith linn ár n-éagsúlacht a cheiliúradh. Go raibh maith agat.

As you are aware, at Gaelscoil an Chaistil, it is extremely important to us that everyone is happy and content. We're a school that teaches about the importance of showing respect and kindness to everyone and we often praise children's kindnesses to each other. This year World Kindness Day is celebrated this Saturday – 13 November. Therefore, we will discuss this in school on Monday. Throughout Anti-Bullying Week we discuss kindness and difference with the children and each class teacher will base a few lessons on Anti-bullying themes. We're all different and it's fine to be different. In order to express this more fully, we would like to organize Odd Sock Day for next Tuesday. Therefore, wear odd socks to school in order to celebrate our differences and diversity. Go raibh maith agat.

Le gach dea-ghuí,
Brídín Ní Dhonnghaile
